HEATH WEEK

2019

Insect Inspiration Talk & Moth Evening

Tuesday 30th July 2019, 19:00 – 20:00

Meet us at Heathland House – the large portacabin beyond Prime Acrobatics at Heather Farm

Join entomologist Andrew Halstead to learn about the fascinating array of insects on our local heaths.

A moth trap will be running throughout the evening and everyone is welcome to stay after the talk come to see how this is done and discover what exciting things we find!

FREE! No booking required.
